

REMEMBERING THE GOSPEL

Remembering who we were before knowing Christ can be helpful in building:

1. Gratitude
2. Humility
3. Kindness & Compassion
4. Faith

Prayer & Reflection

- ❖ "He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed."
(1 Peter 2:24)
- ❖ "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus." (Romans 8:1)
- ❖ For some, there is a sense of shame emerging because who you were still has a hold on who you are. The temptation to go back to your old ways is so real. Remember that God's throne is a "throne of grace." (Hebrew 4:16)
- ❖ "He is a merciful and faithful God who "is near to all who call on Him."
(Psalm 145:18)

PRAYER

Lord, Jesus Christ, Son of God have mercy on me a sinner. Lord, God, Heavenly Father, may your Holy Spirit strengthen our hearts and confirm our faith and hope in your grace and mercy. Although we have reason to fear because of our conscience, our sin, and our unworthiness, we may nevertheless hold fast to your grace and in every trial and temptation find you a very present help and refuge. Through your beloved son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one true God, now and forever. Amen.

 - ❖ How do you let others know that they are equal to you?
 - ❖ How do you complement others in building up the church?

Our Hope & Response (v.7-8)

Ask God to show you which beliefs you hold about people or the church that are led by culture or popular opinion but not grounded in Biblical truth.

If you are not certain if some of your beliefs are grounded in Biblical truth, write them down. Ask God to reveal the answer to you. And afterward, bring this up with brothers and sisters so we can pray and discern together.
